Entry Conditions 2010

Read all entry information before completing entry form.

Clearly record each participant's name, address, contact information, and category (Producer, Director, Scriptwriter, etc.) on the entry form. The Shoot Out Cheyenne awards prizes for each category, and you must be a registered team member to be eligible to win. Any participant whose entry information is incomplete WILL NOT BE REGISTERED and therefore not considered part of the event.

Team members can be listed for more than one category, e.g., one person can be your team's Producer, Camera Person, and Art Director. You can even be a one-person team, listing your name for all categories. There is no additional fee for this, but there must be A NAME ENTERED FOR EACH CATEGORY—even if it means duplicating information.

Participants can work with more than one team but must register as part of each team.

Due to security concerns, the registered producer will be required to be easily identified [with provided a badge and neck holder.

EACH PERSON PARTICIPATING IN THE SHOOT OUT MUST SIGN A PARTICIPANT RELEASE FORM

REGISTRATION OF ACTORS

It is recommended that all participating actors are registered. However, The Shoot Out Cheyenne also realizes that this may be difficult due to the spontaneity of decisions made during the competition. Therefore, The Shoot Out makes it the Producers responsibility to make sure all "extra" cast members sign a Participant Release Form.
